Subject: Band Update 12/5

Hi all,

I wanted to get this out today as one last reminder to students that wear tuxedos for our performances: You need to make sure you have a white tuxedo shirt to wear with your tuxedo! If you use amazon prime, you can still get one ordered and delivered to your home in time for our concert Monday: <https://a.co/d/giYH1xQ>. Otherwise, you will need check out some local stores. As always, if your family is not in a position to purchase a shirt at this time, please email me directly so we can assist as needed.

Students have all been fitted for their concert uniform and can pick up their tux or dress to bring home anytime. They're hanging in the uniform closet and labeled for each student.
